DEADLY ERA

BAND BIOGRAPHY

Forged in Grande Prairie, Alberta, in July 2026, Deadly Era is a five-piece metal band blending ferocious death metal vocals, heavy melodic riffs, and layered guitar work into a sound that refuses to be confined by genre. Every song has its own identity, moving between aggression, haunting melodies, and atmospheric passages. With the ability to reinterpret their material acoustically, Deadly Era embraces musical contrast while maintaining its uncompromising heavy-metal foundation.

BEHIND THE BAND / THE PHIL STORY

Before the band even met Philip, Kelly convinced everyone that Phil only had one leg. The rest of the band believed him until they finally met in person. It became an unforgettable introduction - and a perfect example of the humour and chaos behind Deadly Era's crushing riffs.
